

Guidelines governing the use of official name and logo

Purpose and Policy:

These Guidelines govern the use of the FTS-International name and logo as depicted on this website (the Logo), which are the exclusive intellectual property of Facial Therapy Specialists - International. Specific regulations regarding the use of the name and Logo are listed below. FTS-International reserves the right to update these Guidelines from time to time, without notice.

Approved Use of the Name and Logo:

The Name and Logo may only be used by FTS-International on their website and associated media as required.

Where the name and logo is included on downloaded resources from the FTS-International website the content of those resources must not be altered.

Members must not use the FTS-International name or logo on their own website, resources or paperwork. In addition, all members must ensure that the name or Logo is not displayed in any manner, (including on any item or electronic communication) which could suggest that any individual, practice, event or third party has been endorsed by, or is otherwise connected with FTS-International other than being a paying member. For example, the name and logo cannot be used in any external (non FTS-International) course/lecture advertisements.

Disclaimer:

To the fullest extent permitted by law, FTS-International shall not be liable to any party for any claims, costs, expenses, loss or damage (whether direct, indirect or consequential, and whether economic or other) arising from, connected with, or related to the use of the FTS-International name and/or logo, including the provision of any services which display the name and/or logo.

Violation of these Guidelines:

FTS-International has the absolute right to request the immediate removal of any references to the name and logo on any media if it determines (in its sole discretion) that any use of such does not comply with these Guidelines. To the extent any such request is made, you would not be permitted to distribute any existing literature bearing the FTS-International name/logo.

You must maintain active membership of FTS-International in order to keep using any resources bearing the FTS-International name or logo. Once your membership status is no longer current any permission granted under these Guidelines will immediately terminate and you must immediately cease use of all FTS-International resources.
